

Deadline to Apply:
August 8, 2016

Senior Trainer:

Green Dot, etc. Inc. seeks a dynamic and charismatic public speaker with demonstrated leadership skills to join our training team. We strongly prefer candidates who have experience implementing the Green Dot strategy in a school, college, community, or military setting – particularly someone who has been certified as a Green Dot instructor. We are a high-growth, mission-driven organization dedicated to the dramatic reduction of power-based personal violence. The Senior Trainer will provide consultation, training, and curriculum development on research-informed, data driven prevention strategies for universities, military installations, state coalitions, K-12 school personnel, and community agencies. The ideal candidate will have exemplary interpersonal and public speaking skills, initiative, and will be highly collaborative.

We offer a competitive salary commensurate with education and experience, and our benefits package includes health, dental and vision insurance, life insurance, generous leave, and retirement. Position will be based in Alexandria, Virginia and there will be 50% travel associated with the job. Relocation assistance to Alexandria, Virginia is available to the person selected for this position.

Job Duties:

- Lead in training and adaptation of content for diverse populations.
- Provide training and technical assistance in the domains of power-based personal violence prevention (sexual assault, intimate partner violence, stalking, bullying, child abuse, and elder abuse) and effective community mobilization including but not limited to the Green Dot Violence Prevention strategy.
- Under the supervision of the Executive Director, serve as a point of contact for technical assistance related to prevention strategies. This includes providing telephone and web-based consultation regarding effective prevention and supporting clients through the process of implementing the Green Dot strategy.
- Contribute as a team member to prevention program curriculum development for diverse populations (k-12, college, military, neighborhoods, communities of color); media development; online presence; innovative community mobilization strategies, etc.
- Master new and existing training programs and stay abreast of key developments in the field.
- Collaborate with the Director of Communications to ensure that all training materials are accurate and conducive to the needs of training participants and are reflective of new developments in the field.
- Other duties as assigned

Employment Requirements:

- Master's degree required
- Must be familiar with the Green Dot Violence Prevention Strategy; experience implementing the strategy as a certified instructor is strongly preferred
- Must have some degree of experience with power-based personal violence prevention in the area of intimate partner violence, sexual assault, stalking, child abuse, elder abuse, and/or bullying
- Must be a dynamic and persuasive trainer
- Must be an excellent communicator
- Must be self-directed
- Must complete an application for employment;
- Must submit to background checks (including but not limited to a Child Abuse and Neglect (CAN) registry check, criminal background check and Department of Motor Vehicles Check), and the results of the checks must yield no findings that would be inconsistent with the mission of Green Dot etc., Inc.
- Experience with program and content development preferred
- Experience working with diverse populations and proficiency in languages other than English is preferred
- Experience and/or training in adult education is highly desirable

Interested candidates should submit a resume, letter of interest, and a 5-minute video demonstrating candidate's public speaking style (does not need to be specific to this topic):
