

Nuts and Bolts of Filing a U-Visa Petition for Domestic Violence Survivors

In the uncertain world of immigration, survivors may be eligible for non-immigrant status if they meet certain requirements.

In this interactive training for attorneys and legal staff working with immigrant survivors, participants will learn about the basics of drafting U-Visas, and what to expect throughout the legal process.

Presented By:

Suzanne Bailey, Esq., Project Director

Chloe Meade, Legal Advocate

Women's Law Center of Maryland's Multi-Ethnic Domestic Violence Project (MEDOVI)

When:

Thursday, April 20, 2017

10:00 am – 1:00 pm

Where:

YWCA of Annapolis and Anne Arundel County

Conference Room

1517 Ritchie Highway, Suite 201

Arnold, MD 21012

Register online at www.MNADV.org/UVisa

Maryland Network
Against Domestic Violence
WORKING TOGETHER FOR A SAFER FUTURE

YWCA IS ON A MISSION

eliminating racism
empowering women

ywca

Annapolis and
Anne Arundel County

Women's Law Center of Maryland